

STICK A PIN HERE!

You Won't Find

Cheaper Goods,

You Won't Find

Better Goods,

In fact, you won't find such

BARGAINS

Anywhere as are shown you

daily at the

Maury Dry Goods Store.

Winter is Here!

Do you need a warm dress? Do you need a warm wrap to help you battle with the cold? Keep in mind our prices for on these goods.

SATURDAY AND MONDAY

One dozen Stylish Fancy Patterns, worth from $5.00 to $7.50. Choice for..... $3.75

One line all-wool Dress Goods, worth from 50c to 60c per yd. You get it at..... 33c

Another line of Dress Goods, all wool, in black and colors, in many instances worth twice the money we ask for them. You take them at..... 25c

One line Jackets, high class goods too, and they are worth $15.50 and $18.00. Our price..... $10.00

One line of Jackets, worth $7.50 and $8.00. Our price..... $4.98

One line of Jackets, worth $3.50 and $4.00. Our price..... $2.39

We also have an elegant line of Seal Plush Capes, and they are beauties too, in 2 styles, $3.50 and..... $5.00

It pays you to trade with us.

Maury Dry Goods Co.

POSTOFFICE TO BE MOVED.

After Jan. 1. It Will Occupy the Building Next to Alcorn's.

Postmaster Fariss has made arrangements to move the post office into the vacant building next door to Alcorn's drug store, on West Seventh street, on January 1, 1898. There will be 100 new lock boxes put in, and improvements will be made that will better facilitate the handling of the mails.

Our Holiday Stock,

Is very complete, the finest ever shown in Columbia. Look us over, sure; before you buy. nov26-27 JAMES BROS.

BETHELL HOUSE SOLD.

Mr. Webb Ridley and Mrs. B. L. Dedman Purchase It for $34,000.

The Bethell House property, and the undivided half interest in a vacant lot north of the Nelson Block on North Main street, was this week transferred by W. L. Granbery, under a deed of trust executed by R. L. Granbery and wife, to Mr. Webb Ridley and Mrs. B. L. Dedman, wife of J. M. Dedman, to be held by them equally and jointly. The price paid was $24,000.

The purchasers took charge of the hotel last Friday, and will at once begin to repaint the building inside and out and make other improvements. Mr. J. M. Dedman, who has been manager of the hotel at Red Boiling Springs for several years, will be in charge. Mr. T. N. Hamelton, formerly clerk at the Tulane in Nashville, has accepted the position as clerk.

The families of Mr. Ridley and Mr. Dedman are now living at the hotel, and Mr. and Mrs. Granbery have moved to Ashwood to reside.

COFFEE!

Do you hear you say you are looking for a strictly good Coffee? Then try our Blend at six pounds for $1.00. We have a better coffee than Arbuckle's or 4-X at eight pounds for $1.00, and up to 35c per pound for the finest Mocha and Java. Try a can of Pens at 5c, 8c and 10c per can. We have just received a barrel of new crop sugar-house molasses which is strictly good at 50c per gallon. New Kraft, Hominy Grits, Oat Meal, Prunes, Peaches, Raisins, Cheese and Macaroni. If you are not already our customer give us a trial order. "SEE?"

Telephone 131. W. E. McKENNON.

MARRIAGES.

Joe Chatman to Miss Athel Isabel. Edgar B. Hill to Miss Etta B. McBride.

W. E. Alexander to Miss Lena M. Witherspoon.

S. P. Chandler to Miss Vertie Mosely.

New Moore to Miss Lillie Rine. James Reaves to Miss Novoline Houser.

PERSONALS.

Hon. E. W. Carmack is here.

Mr. Tom Meadors is in Chicago this week.

Duke Biddle is on a visit to friends in Clarksville.

Hon. A. M. Hughes, Jr., is here from Washington.

Fred Evans spent several days in Nashville this week.

Maj. Will Polk, of Robinsonville, Miss., is visiting here.

Attorney-General Boyd has returned to Waynesboro.

Mrs. T. N. Jones has returned from a visit to Dresden.

Richard Cheairs has returned from a visit to Kentucky.

Col. H. G. Evans has returned from a visit to Kentucky.

Miss Lizzie Brown Houser has returned from a visit to the country.

Mrs. Ida Scott, of Lynnville, is visiting the family of Mr. Jno. Fly.

Mr. W. P. Handy, of the Nashville American, was here this week.

W. B. Gordon, Esq., was in Lawrence county several days this week.

Mrs. John A. Aul, of Nashville, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. M. L. Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Raymond and little son have returned to Baton Rouge, La.

Miss Kate Latta has returned from a visit to Fayetteville and Petersburg.

Miss Mary Belle Gray, of Nashville, visited her grandparents on Thanksgiving.

Miss Cook, of Florida, who has been visiting Mrs. John Bose, has returned home.

Miss Lucy Floyd was the guest of friends at Williamsport several days last week.

Mrs. E. Yoest and Mrs. Jno. Hunter were visiting friends at Carter's Creek recently.

Miss Margaret Ingram, of Mt. Pleasant, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. W. Watkins.

Miss Eva Akin, of Nashville, spent several days last week with Miss Minnie Leneave.

Mr. Geo. E. McKennon has returned from a visit to relatives in the Lipscomb neighborhood.

Miss Cornelia Jones returned last Monday from Nashville, where she spent the Thanksgiving holidays.

Misses Virginia Carpenter and Mina McLemore are the guests of Mrs. John Carpenter, at Mt. Pleasant.

Charley McEnery, after a visit to his aunt, Mrs. E. H. Hatcher, returned last week to Washington, D. C.

Mr. L. K. Webb, of Nashville, is here for several days in the interest of the Cumberland Telephone Company.

Charlie Hatcher came out from Nashville last week to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents.

Mr. N. H. Harris, of the firm of Harris & Cole Bros., came down from Cedar Falls, Ia., last week, to look after affairs at the Pump Factory.

Misses Bessie and Eunice Lee, of Duplex, and Miss Ida Litton, of Nashville, who were the guests of Miss Florence Farrell, have returned to their homes.

Miss Katherine Hatch, who has been visiting Miss Louise Dobbins for several weeks, left this week for a visit to Gallatin before returning to her home in Florida.

If You Have a Horse or Cow,

We have the stuff to feed them. We have recently received several carloads of sweet baled Timothy Hay.

Shelled Oats and Corn always on hand.

The Groceries at this store are of the best grades and fresh. Our prices are right.

Give us a call.

Frierson & Embry,

Phone 107.

Crapshooters Rained.

Sheriff Webb and his deputies raided a nest of negro crapshooters in "Happy Hollow," back of the Knob, last Friday night, and captured seventeen of the "bone-rollers." They were brought before Judge Coleburn Saturday for trial, and all submitted their cases. Their fines, including the costs, amounted to $6.10 each, and all but two paid them and were released.

Removal of Office.

I have moved my office from Garden to West Seventh street, Branch building, just east of the First Methodist church. Office hours as heretofore. J. G. WILLIAMSON, M. D. dec3-2t.

The "Independent" Quits.

The "Tennessee Independent," which began publication in Columbia about three months ago, has suspended, and Messrs. Rubens and Bedine, the publishers, are packing their material to return to their home in Indiana.

Miss Nellie Carroll

Announces the completeness of her Fall stock, which has been selected with great care from among the leading importing houses in the country. The latest creations and the choicest novelties shown.

ENTRANCE through store of McKennon, Anderson & Foster.

Public Schools.

The Directors are requested to meet at the court-house in Columbia, Saturday, December 11, at 10 o'clock. Business important.

P. W. DODSON, County Sup't.

Attention K. P's.

Business of importance next Friday night, 7 o'clock. Every member is urged to be present. W. Ed Voss, C. C.

TO HAVE A

Merry, Satisfactory,

AND

Money-saving Christmas,

MAKE YOUR

Holiday Purchases Here!

We are going to sell Holiday goods by the power of irresistible prices. Our choice selection for the Christmas trade is now ready for the inspection and approval of all. Come in and be pleasantly surprised. Surprised at the

Splendid Assortment,

Nice Variety,

Superior Quality,

Low Prices.

We have new novelties in nice, but inexpensive goods. We have choicer and more costly gifts, ranging in price as high as you care to go. No one is so old, no one is so young, but what fitting and appropriate gifts in abundance can be found in our splendid display of popular and pleasing Christmas presents. The virtue in values, the beauty in well-chosen goods and the power of low prices make our store the best place to do your Christmas shopping.

We wish to remind the Ladies

(we mean the economical and discriminating house-wife) that we are headquarters for

Fine Flavoring Extracts,

Baking Powders,

Fruit Coloring, etc.,

for those Christmas cakes. Our VANILLA EXTRACT is our specialty; made in our own laboratory from the finest quality Vanilla Beans and aged for two years before offered for sale.

Full pints.....$1.50.

Regular size......25c.

No trouble to show goods.

RAINS, THE DRUGGIST.

For a short while only one small cake Colgate's new Vi-Orris Soap with every bottle Rains' Fragrant Cream, only 25c.

ON THE MOVE.

A Number of Families in Columbia

Changing Their Residences.

Dr. J. G. Williamson and family moved this week to their new home, recently purchased from Mr. Jno. A. Oakes, on the corner of High and Sixth streets; Mr. Oakes and family moved to their old home, corner of Garden and Sixth, and Messrs. John Mitchell and Bake Adams, who have been living in the Oakes house, moved with their families to the place on Sixth street which Mr. Mitchell purchased this week from Mr. S. S. Fleming for $3,750. Mr. and Mrs. Fleming, in order to give Mr. Mitchell immediate possession, moved to the Mitchell place on West Seventh street, vacated by Dr. Williamson, where they will reside until next summer, when they will build on their farm three miles out on the Pulaski pike, where they will make their permanent home.

Mr. Albert Shields and family, who have been living in the Dunnington house on Sixth street, have moved to the Craik place on Ninth, and Dr. Holding and family have moved to the place vacated by Mr. Shields. Mr. F. D. Lander has rented the McCord place, where Dr. Holding resided, and will move there about the middle of the month. Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Forgy have taken rooms in the Dunnington house on West Seventh street.

Bargains at Henry Gross'.

Headquarters for neck wear at Henry Gross'.

Buy good shoes at Henry Gross'.

Overcoats, half price, at Henry Gross'.

Clothing sale on at Henry Gross'.

Buy your rubbers at Henry Gross'.

Trunks, all kinds, at Henry Gross'.

Remember all bargains at Henry Gross'.

Dry goods bargains at Henry Gross'.

It

Persons Called From Exchanges.

Mr. Thos. Alexander, of Columbia, was in Franklin on business last week.—Williamson County News.

Miss Pearl Provine, of Columbia, is with Mrs. John A. Lester. Miss Pearl was a resident of Lebanon a few years ago, and has many warm friends to welcome her back.—Lebanon Democrat.

Handsome Gifts.

For ladies, gents, wives, mothers, brothers, sisters, sweethearts, uncles, aunts, cousins, sons, daughters and friends at JAMES BROS., Jewelers. nov26-2t

Masonic.

There will be a convocation of Lafayette Chapter No. 4 of Royal Arch Masons in the Masonic Temple this and Monday evenings at 7 o'clock, for work in the Royal Arch degree.

De Molay commandery No. 3, of Knights Templar, will hold a stated convocation next Tuesday night, December 7th, at 7 o'clock in the Masonic Temple.

AROUND TOWN.

17 beautiful pictures for 25cts. It

St. Louis Art Co.

The Phoenix Bank building has been newly painted.

Walter Adkisson is assistant clerk at the Bethell House.

Miss Mittle Elam, who has been seriously ill, is much improved.

Cabinet Photos $1.00 per dozen at Fielden Bros' gallery. dec3-2t

Mr. Ed Turner, who was quite sick for several days, is able to be out this week.

W. T. Wilkes can rent or sell you the best of organs and pianos. See him before buying.

Mr. Jos. H. James, who was painfully injured by a fall one day last week, is able to be out.

Dobbins & Ewing have something good to say on the eighth page to purchasers of holiday goods.

Roadmaster W. C. Bradshaw and wife are boarding with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mayes, on High street.

Parents desiring their children instructed in Latin, should apply to dec3-2t REV. W. D. WENDEL.

The Maury County Teachers' Association meets Saturday, Dec. 4, at the Public School building. A full attendance is requested.

Mr. W. K. Stevens and family have moved from Culleoka to Columbia, and are occupying the Fleming cottage on North Garden street.

Don't wait till the great rush; make your selections now while you can be waited on. JAMES BROS. nov26-2t

Dobbins & Ewing have made special arrangements with old Santa Claus this Christmas. See their "ad" on the eighth page.

Messrs. A. B. Rains and R. W. Watkins have given their residences on West Seventh street fresh coats of paint, and otherwise improved them.

Maybe you have entirely forgotten it, but will you kindly remember not to forget it any longer, but to call in now, while you think of it, and settle that subscription you owe the HERALD?

A wise man considers stock, finish and price. A foolish man considers price. I have the three right on cemetery work. Call and be convinced. S. P. PAYNE, Telephone 57. Columbia, Tenn.

Anstin Owen has sold his cigar stand at the Bethell House to Ridley & Dedman, and will leave to-day for Baton Rouge, La., where he has accepted a position with S. R. Raymond in the shoe business.

Next Sunday a slight change will take place in the L. & N. time table, but just exactly what, has not yet been given out. Better make inquiries if you propose starting anywhere, or you might get left.

Have your family picture taken at our home; they are the most natural. Don't forget the family reunions. Views of houses and schools especially, in our new style of work, for 2 weeks only. ST. LOUIS ART CO., S. W. Cor. Sq'r. 1t

Mr. Henry Cox, who has been in the clothing department at McKennon, Anderson & Foster's, is now with J. Rosenthal. William Evans will take Mr. Cox's place, and Roy Stevens has been added to the force of clerks in the dry goods department at McKennon, Anderson & Foster's.

Big Reduction in Prices.

For next Saturday and Monday all our stylish fall and winter hats will go for half price, to reduce stock. Big reduction in prices of all millinery. MRS. H. F. FARISS.

It at the Maury Dry Goods Co.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Adjourned Yesterday Afternoon After a Short Session.

Circuit Court adjourned yesterday afternoon after a short session, and Judge Williams and Attorney-General Boyd returned to their homes.

Mrs. Sadie Hood was granted a divorce from her husband, Jeff Hood, and it was ordered that the mother be given possession of their only child.

The case of H. G. Evans vs. J. H. Lee & Co., in which damages had been assessed against defendant to the amount of $1,231, was appealed to the Supreme Court.

The grand jury submitted their report to Judge Williams, Wednesday, and were discharged. The report states that the jury visited the county poor-house and jail and found both in a clean and healthy condition. There are at present 51 inmates in the poor-house, of which 10 are white males, 18 white females, 10 colored males and 13 colored females.

Charles Johnson (colored), who was sentenced to the penitentiary for 32 years on the charge of rape, has appealed to the Supreme Court.

Arthur Harris (colored) was given 15 days in the work house on the charge of larceny.

Candies! Candies! Candies!

We are just in receipt of the largest and finest lot of Christmas candies ever brought to this market, from the finest assorted chocolates to common stick and fancy candy. We have them all and will sell them from 8c per pound up. Call and save big money on your candies.

11 lbs best seed-tick green coffee.....$1.00

8 lbs Arbuckle's 4-X or Levering coffee.....$1.00

4 lbs best Mocha and Java roast coffee.....$1.00

such as other houses sell at 35c lb.

6-oz. bottle snuff for......10

Fresh cakes, crackers, nuts and raisins just in. Seeded raisins, citron, crystallized pine apples, cherries, etc, for fruit cakes at bottom prices.

WHITE BAKINGWOOD.

Call Telephone 21. North Main Street.

NO BOYCOTT on users of our telephone.

Patronize us and anybody else you please. We don't draw the line on your neighbors if you wish to extend to them the courtesies of our service. For rates see

LELAND HUME, or W. T. NAFF.

IT PAYS TO WAIT.

There are some things we cannot do. The big rush is now on and will continue until Christmas. We frequently find it impossible to wait upon all of our customers promptly, especially during the middle of the day. We hope you will bear with us patiently, for we assure you, you will be fully paid for any inconvenience you may suffer. We are having a larger trade than ever before, which makes us believe our Prices are right.

Our Capes and Jackets

are the popular price kind—they appeal to economical buyers, and are models of stylish, up-to-date wraps. Never have we had such a

CARPET TRADE.

You will make a mistake if you buy FLOOR COVERINGS before seeing our line. New

Rugs, Carpets and Matings

have just been added, making this department more complete than ever.

CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

is now offered at remarkably low prices, as broken lots are being closed without reserve.

Men's Suits and Overcoats, in more weaves, styles and sizes, than can be found anywhere else, while our prices are simply below competition.

J. ROSENTHAL.

RELIGIOUS NEWS.

Rev. I. M. Barr, of Harriman, preached at St. Peter's Episcopal Church last Sunday.

Dr. Kelley occupied his pulpit at the First Methodist Church Sunday morning, but Sunday night, on account of his being sick, no services were held.

An anniversary service of the second year's pastorate of Rev. D. T. Waynick will be held at the South Main Street C. P. Church next Sunday at 11 o'clock. At night Mr. Waynick's subject will be, "The Value of a Man." Young men are especially invited to attend.

The revival meeting at the Baptist Church, which has been in progress for the past two weeks, has been productive of much good. Rev. J. H. Thompson, the pastor, has been preaching some most excellent sermons to good-sized audiences. The meeting will probably be brought to a close this week, on account of the disagreeable weather.

The HERALD a few days since received the following cheerful and characteristic note from Rev. T. J. Duncan: "The Northwest Texas Conference has just closed a most delightful session. This correspondent has been returned to Taylor, Texas. I am glad—'Black Eyes' is glad. We are now at Fort Worth, en route for home. We begin a protracted meeting Sunday, Dec. 6. Our son, Jerome, had completed his fourth year at Morrow